Quantity Surveyor

Devon

(phone number removed)

This regionally focused, vibrant business fuses together building contracting and housing development delivery. With an innovative, collaborative approach and extensive experience, this company is proud to create and revitalise sustainable places to live.

Having a number of live sites across Devon, the company are actively looking for a self sufficient and experienced Quantity Surveyor to join their team and lead new build residential developments.

As the QS on site, you will be required to take commercial responsibility for the scheme from procurement to final account. With support from your site team, you will ensure high standards of account management and customer liaison, cost control, risk management and accurate reporting.

Applicants should possess:

A proven track record in a Quantity Surveying role

Extensive house building experience with recognised developers and/or contractors

Ideally have managed sites upwards of 100 units

Excellent communication and management skills

A good understanding of construction methods and materials

Good knowledge of different forms of contract

A min HNC level qualification in Construction or related subject

Fully IT literate

Both sites you will manage are 150 – 200 units each, so you will need to be comfortable in overseeing volume schemes. Most of your working week will be spent on site.

The company are able to accommodate mostly site working, 1 day from the office and 1 day from home. They provide staff with a generous benefits package including pension, healthcare, share incentives and employee rewards scheme.

If you are looking for a permanent position with a respected company, please send your CV today!
