Social Care Registered Manager Job, West Sussex (South), Permanent full time.

Your new company

Our client is an expanding and developing Social Care Provider across the South East, providing a range of care from Elderly and Respite to Nurse-Led services that include Brain Injury.

Your new role

In your new role you will manage an Older Person's Service with CQC registration including a clinical team.

You will run the home as a whole and be responsible for maintaining the standard of care in the service, managing the staff team, working alongside the Development Manager to ensure that the service is running at capacity and managing the building.

What you'll need to succeed

Previous experience in a similar Registered Manager role or an exceptional Deputy Manager would be considered.

You will ideally have worked in older person's services with an element of respite or palliative care including knowledge of clinical services.

The ability to work flexibly including on call rota's and weekends/ nights etc if they are required.

A desire to progress and develop your knowledge skills.

What you'll get in return

This is an opportunity to join an organisation with concerted plans to develop their current services and ensure that their provision is of the best quality.

You will also be able to earn a salary of between £40K- £45K dependent upon experience and develop your career with the organisation.
