Principal Accountabilities

To carry out his or her duties as a Childcare Worker and Key Worker so that the National Standards, laid down by Ofsted, are consistently exceeded.

To ensure that the highest possible standard of childcare is provided to the children who are resident in the Home.

To purposefully and systematically improve the lives of all the young people who are resident at the Home.

To build and maintain positive and effective working relationships with family, friends and any other external body, as requested by the Registered Manager.

To contribute to the building and maintenance of a culture of trust and mutual respect between all involved in the Home, both children and members of staff.

The Provision of Childcare

The Childcare Worker contributes to the development of appropriate and high quality care plans for each young person.

All legal requirements, Ofsted standards and the policies and procedures of Bay View Childcare are adhered to at all times.

Any feedback received from residents, family, friends, placing authorities and any other relevant parties is religiously noted and communicated to the Registered Manager and Deputy Manager by the pre-agreed method.

The Home is kept clean, tidy, safe and secure at all times.

The Childcare Worker builds constructive and trusting relationships with the children in the Home, ensuring a full understanding of their personal background and individual needs.

The Childcare Worker is approachable, friendly and professional, proactively engages with the children and creates an open, positive and inclusive environment so that the children feel that they belong in the Home.

The Childcare Worker works proactively and constructively with the children, endeavouring to build relationships with them, add to their quality of life and build foundations for future personal success.

The children are actively supervised and kept safe and the Childcare Worker looks out for signs of unease, frustration and unhappiness and engages with the children as necessary.

The Childcare Worker is quick to sense, manage and de-escalate any conflict situation which may arise. Any action taken in this respect is in line with the policies and procedures of Bay View Childcare.

All issues and concerns relating to the children are proactively communicated to the Registered Manager, Deputy Manager and Shift Leader.

Risk assessments are carried out for all new activities, as requested.

Pre-activity assessments are carried out for existing activities to ensure that they are able to operate safely and effectively.

The Childcare Worker is actively involved in activities with the children, doing things with them, very much as a good parent would.

The Childcare Worker discharges all of his or her responsibilities as a 'Key Worker' and ensures that all of the children are treated as individuals.

The Childcare Worker is careful to maintain regular and constructive communication with the family and friends of the children for whom he or she is the 'Key Worker'.

The Childcare Worker remains unerringly positive in terms of his or her participation in activities with the children and the relaying of personal life experiences.

An active and constructive contribution is made to reviews of any child for whom the Childcare Worker is the 'Key Worker'.

All of the company's policies and procedures are religiously followed and all necessary paperwork is diligently and fully completed. The Childcare Worker has a full understanding of the reasons for all records that have to be kept and is quick to ask whenever this is not the case.

The quality of food provided to the children is in line with the pre-agreed food standards.

The Childcare Worker actively assists with cooking and the purchasing of foodstuffs, as required.

Bay View is an equal opportunities employer and positively encourages applications from suitably qualified and eligible candidates. The company is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children, young people and vulnerable adults and expects all staff to share this commitment. You must willing to undertake a DBS check at enhanced level if successful for the position.
