The Role

As a Residential Support Worker, you will:

- Provide comprehensive and child-centric care to the children in residence
- Support in the creation and implementation of personal care plans
- Encourage and assist children in engaging in constructive activities
- Act as a role model to motivate and inspire children to achieve their potential

- Maintain a safe, nurturing, and supportive environment

Residential Support Worker Benefits

- Salary £27,736.00 - £29,712.00 per annum
- Access to funded QCF Diploma qualifications in Residential Child Care
- Employee Assistance Programme (EAP)
- Employee of the Month Scheme, with a potential to win a £50 voucher every month!
- Length of Service Holiday Scheme Awarding up to an additional 5 days paid leave per year with continued service, above Statutory Entitlement

Residential Support Worker Requirements

- Possession of a Diploma Level 3 or 4 in Residential Childcare (Children and Young Peoples Workforce) or equivalent, or a willingness to work towards this
- Some relevant experience in working with Children and Young People that have social and emotional difficulties or behaviour that challenges.
- Full UK Manual Driving Licence
- Ability to work shifts and sleep in the home overnight

Are you committed to making a difference in children's lives? Do you possess the compassion and patience required to support children in need? If so, we'd love to hear from you.
