Sales Engineer – Industrial Electrical Sector

Salary negotiable £35K - £45K+ Bonus, Pension, Car etc.

On behalf of our Client we are seeking suitable candidates for the role of Sales Engineer to promote and further develop profitable sales of the clients products into the industrial sector. It is envisaged that with some flexibility you will divide your time between external visits to customers and internally based sales and marketing involvement at the company offices. You would be dealing with and selling into existing and new customers, via wholesale and distributor channels and directly to OEM machine builders, Contractors and End Users. The career path with this role is intended to develop your role further with an increasing amount of sales and marketing activity responsibility, along with salary development and company vehicle enhancement, and progression eventually to a Sales Manager role.

Typically you will already have sales experience in a Sales Engineer, Sales Executive, Sales Manager role and be looking for your next opportunity to progress and play a more key role in the success of the business. You will be supported with use of the customer database, along with in house tele-sales, lead generation and marketing and have the opportunity for input and involvement in marketing activity, and technically supported by in house specialists. You will have the additional confidence of knowing the company can provide a full in-house service including bespoke design and manufacture of product.

To be successful in applying you must have sales experience related to the industrial electrical sector and although not essential, an engineering qualification is most likely, probably to ONC/HNC in either Electrical or Mechanical Engineering subject. A valid U.K. driving license is also required as is the ability to travel extensively occasionally and spend occasional nights away.

Ideal locations would include, Oxford, Dunstable, Milton Keynes, Northampton, Bedford, Stevenage, Cambridge, Leicester, Peterborough, Coventry, Luton, Harlow, St Albans, Aylesbury, Watford.
