Are you interested in becoming a Teaching Assistant? Do you want to help children to build their education and their life skills? Are you friendly and enthusiastic?

If you feel the above apply to you then this is the role was made for you!

A Special Needs School in Devizes are looking for a SEN Teaching Assistant to join their friendly team full-time from Monday to Friday starting this September. The role will involve working under the guidance of the class teacher, and supporting the pupils academically and emotionally, to help improve their independence and life skills.

The school caters for pupils with a range of additional needs, so as an SEN Teaching Assistant this is an exciting role where no two days are ever the same. Within your day to day, you will work with students who may have ASD, ADHD, cerebral palsy, tourette's, down syndrome or other learning needs so be ready to be flexible and be able to adapt to each of the students' needs. The school have a timetabled curriculum which includes lessons dedicated to life skills so you will be helping the students with cooking and sports - get ready to make the classroom a fun and exciting place!

Experience working with SEN children and/or adults would be really helpful. This can be professional or personal experience, such as having a family member with additional needs. A relevant degree would also be desirable, as well as experience in education. However, passion and enthusiasm come first!
