SEN Student Support Assistant- Westerham, Kent

Do you enjoy working with young people?

Are you compassionate?

Are you patient?

Are you caring?

If you answered YES- have you considered working in as a Student Support Assistant in a school for children with physical disabilities?

We are looking for people like you who have these valuable qualities and would be an asset in a SEN school.

No experience is required, although it is desired. Perhaps you have cared for a relative or neighbour and have gained transferrable skills, or maybe you have always known you want to enter a setting where you can use your strong people skills.

Working in a SEN school is rewarding, challenging, and no two days are the same.

Qualities we look for in a SEN Student Support Assistant:

Good team player

Willing to assist with personal care once given training

Highly empathetic

Strong communication skills

Commitment to a safe and inclusive learning environment

Highly desirable but not essential qualities we look for in a SEN Student Support Assistant:

Any level of BSL

Any level of Makaton

Experience with moving and handling

Experience with personal care

Experience with assisted eating and drinking
