

SEN Tutor, Chippenham

Apply Now

Company: Prospero Teaching

Location: Nationwide

Category: educational-instruction-and-library

THE POSITION:

Prospero Teaching are currently seeking an experienced Tutor with Qualified Teacher Status (QTS) to provide 1:1 educational support to a student in Chippenham.

At Prospero Teaching, we work closely with the local authorities, schools, and SEND Teams in the Chippenham area and we specialise in providing qualified and experienced tutors to work with children in looked after care (LAC/CLA), pupils in mainstream schools that require additional educational support and young people who are not currently accessing mainstream education.

We are currently looking for an experienced teacher/tutor to work 1:1 with a Year 4 student who is not currently accessing mainstream education and is seeking tuition as an alternative provision. The tutor will be required to deliver core subject support (English, Maths & Science) and will be delivering 15 hours per week. Sessions will be taking place face-to-face at the students home in Chippenham, so applicants must be available to work face-to-face and be prepared to travel for the sessions as well as online where needed.

Further knowledge of the students ability and targets for education will be provided, but you will be expected to gather your own resources and deliver the curriculum you deem fit.

To be considered, you must hold QTS, have experience working with SEND, and have a background in teaching or private tutoring. If you can only provide 1 of the above core subjects, please still apply stating your subject specialism as you will still be considered.

For more information on the role and to apply, please call (phone number removed) or email (url removed).
