SEND Outreach Tutors Urgently Required  DBS costs covered!  Immediate Start **

£20-£33 (depending on experience)

Do you have experience working with a variety of SEND and have a background in teaching or private tutoring?

Are you considering moving out of the classroom and into private 1:1 tutoring?

Do you want to make a positive difference in a child's life and ready to take on a challenging yet highly rewarding job??

We work closely with the local authorities, mainstream schools, and SEND Teams in the Soham, Cambridgeshire area and we specialise in providing qualified and experienced tutors to work with young people who are not currently accessing mainstream education.

You will be supporting students with special educational and complex needs. This may include those with autism, ADHD, SPD (sensory processing disorder), Speech and Language difficulties, as well those struggling with mental and emotional challenges such as trauma induced behaviour, social anxiety and low self-esteem.

This will be continuous and until the student is placed within a suitable school, when we will then set you up ready for your next student.

Benefits of Working as an Outreach Tutor:

Good rates of pay.

All DBS costs covered.

No work to take home and more time to spend with your family.

Support from a trained and experienced consultant.

Ultimate flexibility in days worked = greater work life balance.

A budget for resources.

Access to Twinkl which includes ideas for lesson plans, interactive activities, resource packs, PowerPoints and teaching ideas. Why Choose Ackerman Pierce?

We can offer a unique experience within recruitment where you have your own personal consultant, who is passionate about what they do, and committed to providing you with the best service possible. This will include availability 16 hours a day, a DBS (Disclosure and Barring Service) and Compliance Service with a quick and easy registration process.
