About the role

Vision for Education are proud to be working in partnership with a welcoming SEND school in Nuneaton who, due to school expansion, are seeking to recruit a Teacher of English for a permanent vacancy. We welcome applications from teachers with SEND education experience and/or mainstream teachers looking to transition into SEND education.

The main purpose of the role is to provide inspirational and outstanding teaching whilst nurturing a safe, secure, and caring educational environment. The role will comprise of planning and teaching English lessons across a Key Stages 3 & 4.

The successful candidate will be passionate about teaching learners with SEND (predominantly ASC) and will form part of a staff team who put young people at the heart of everything they do.

Responsibilities of the role include:

Planning and delivery of high-quality teaching & learning that follows the national curriculum

Meet the pastoral needs of young people

Form positive relationships with young people, parents/carers, and colleagues

Show pro-active commitment to continuing personal professional development

Meeting the individual educational needs of young people

The school provides education for young people aged 11 to 17 that have a diagnosis of Autism Spectrum Condition (ASC) and often associated social, emotional, & mental health needs.

They believe all children and young people are entitled to a nurturing environment that demonstrates care, empathy, and support in order to help young people identify positive aspects of their everyday lives.

Requirements include:

Teaching qualification with QTS / QTLS

Experience working with young people with SEND / ASC (desirable)

The ability to engage and motivate young people

Understanding multi agency working and collaboration with parents/carers

A passion for making a difference to the lives and education of young people with SEND

In return, the trust offer:

Teaching salary plus SEND allowance

Generous employer pension scheme

Comprehensive induction programme

Various other employee benefits, including discounts, counselling service and wellbeing support
