The power of three of the world's leading medical communications companies – Nucleus Global, ApotheCom and Ashfield MedComms – and the specialized services and skill sets within MEDiSTRAVA combine to form Inizio Medical. Inizio Medical creates compelling content and engages communities to achieve outcomes that matter. Due to continuing growth we have a fantastic opportunity for a Senior Account Executive with Nucleus Global. As a Senior Account Executive your role will be varied and will include a mix of publications projects and Medical Affairs. You will work on scientific and strategic consultation, publications planning, and organisation of satellite symposia and stand-alone meetings, and development of a range of print and digital medical education projects. This is a role in a dynamic team with lots of opportunity for growth and progression. You will be someone who enjoys the challenge of acquiring scientific knowledge and expertise across different therapy areas and developing excellent relationships with clients. Using your project management skills and scientific expertise, you will enjoy being part of a team to deliver a range of services to clients. To succeed, you must have a BSc in life sciences. Ideally, you will have previous experience working in a medical communications agency or pharmaceutical marketing environment. In addition, you will have meetings experience (conferences, symposia, satellite meetings, events etc.) You should have good financial understanding and have had experience with budgeting. You will also be able to work well within a team and demonstrate strong written and verbal communication skills. In addition to a great compensation and benefits package including private medical insurance and a company pension, we are happy to talk dynamic working. We are also known for our friendly and informal working environment with Friday socials across our offices, regular wellbeing weeks, and Town Hall events. We offer excellent opportunities for career and personal development.
