About emagine:

emagine is a high-end professional services consultancy and solutions firm specialising in providing business and technology services to the financial services sector. We foster a culture of openness, integrity, and collaboration, aiming to deliver optimal services for our clients and create a positive and equitable working environment.

Role Overview:

We are seeking a Senior Python Developer to join our team, working on a project with a leading Global Investment Bank. As a key contributor, you will play an essential role in building a team for a brand new trading floor, focusing on exotic trades across Europe and some of Asia, specifically in Foreign Exchange (FX).

Key Responsibilities:

Leverage your expertise in backend software engineering, particularly with Python, to lead and inspire your team.

Act as a trusted authority and specialist, providing advice and guidance to team members and managers.

Collaborate with a team of software engineers to identify and prioritize improvements.

Take ownership of tech decisions and balance speed, quality, and functionality.

Work closely with the Product team to understand end-user requirements and translate them into effective technical solutions.

Mentor and collaborate with software teams on code review, version control, architecture, pair programming, and software design.

Technical Skills:

Python, Web API, ORM.

Test-Driven Development (TDD), Continuous Integration/Continuous Deployment (CI/CD).

Azure PaaS services (App Services, Function Apps, API Management, Service Bus, Azure Storage, Key Vaults, Azure SQL, Azure Cosmos DB, Azure AD).

Experience with Webservices, Web API, Swagger, Postman, and Microsoft APIM.

Agile delivery environment experience.
