About The Role

Senior Site Engineer

Division: Building / Construction

Location: Northern Ireland with UK travel

We are searching for a Senior Site Engineer to provide engineering support to the Project Manager and Site Management team. UK travel will be an integral part of this role.

We're looking for someone who has experience as a Senior Site Engineer already and who has good experience with Reinforced Concrete and Setting-Out. We work collaboratively, so good communication skills are key too.

You will have experience with a Main Contractor and a full driving license is essential for this post.

Typical Duties will include:

Undertake surveying and setting out.

Check drawings and quantities.

Schedule selected materials for ordering from the procurement department.

Plan the work and efficiently organise site operations in order to meet an agreed programme of deadlines.

Liaise with any consultants and sub-contracts engaged in the project as necessary.

Supervise and monitor the site labour force and monitor the work of any sub-contractors.

Ensure Health, Safety and Environmental requirements are adhered to.

Ensure quality records necessary to meet quality requirements are maintained.

Resolve any unexpected technical difficulties and other problems that may arise.

Arrange testing of materials.

Undertake the testing and calibration of instruments used.

Keep a Site Diary.

Fully interact with other members of the construction site team (team player).

Liaise with other function/departmental managers.

Introduce improvements and innovation where appropriate to areas of your responsibility.

Undertake other duties as required by the Site Manager to facilitate construction of the works.

This job description is intended to give the post holder an appreciation of the role envisaged for the Senior Site Engineer and the range of duties to be undertaken. It does not attempt to detail every activity. Specific tasks and objectives will be agreed with the post holder at regular intervals.
