About You

To join us as a Sous Chef, it is essential that you have a minimum of one year of catering experience, you hold a relevant catering qualification and Basic Food Hygiene Certificate. You will know how to prepare modified diets that look appealing, are well balanced and in accordance with IDDSI guidance and you'll enjoy assisting the Head Chef in menu planning to delight our residents with your culinary creations.

You love working as part of a team and being supportive to your colleagues as well as your residents. Most importantly, you'll feel proud to be an Avery Chef. We are so proud of our teams, and we will help you feel proud of the work you do too by sharing successes and welcoming you into our #OneFamily.

If you want to progress to Head Chef or enter awards, we will support you with training and encourage you on your career pathway. There is so much to achieve as an Avery Sous Chef.
