- Experience of teaching with emotional regulation and with positive behaviour/de-escalation strategies
- Positive role model to support communication, with a sensitive, nurturing, and consistent approach
- Experience with SEN, MLD, Behaviour difficulties, SEMH, Trauma, social communication teaching background
- Ability to build strong and meaningful relationships with vulnerable students
- Experience of working with disengaged teenagers is essential.
- The passion to teach and inspire young people during a crucial stage of their personal and academic development.
- Easily commutable on various lines with a 5 minute walk from the nearest station

What you can expect from this Maths Teacher role

- To teach in a setting with a like-minded team who are equally as dedicated to the learning and personal development of young people
- Specialised, CPD to support educators working with SEND
- Experience working in specialist therapeutic settings

- Working with a multidisciplinary education team
- Support and coaching from SEND specialists
