Teaching Assistant/Support Worker Roles Available Start date: September 2024 Prospero Teaching is currently looking for positive and energetic Teaching Assistants to work for Primary & Secondary schools across Bristol, England - UK. If you love travelling and experiencing new things, this opportunity is for you! We are currently seeking: Primary Teaching Assistant Secondary Teaching Assistant Special Needs Teaching Assistant Teaching assistants support teachers by helping supervise activities in the classroom, working with children on an individual, small group or whole class basis. Some Teaching assistants work on a one-to-one basis with children with special educational needs. The successful candidate will support teachers and help children with their educational and social development, both in and out of the classroom. They will be highly motivated and focused on achieving the best for every student. They will be open to work across all year groups, where children are grouped based on ability, rather than age. About our schools: We are proud to provide an education, which can be tailored to students' passions in a welcoming and nurturing environment where their aspirations can be accomplished. Our staff hope to inspire their own subject passion in their students and to create self-assured and independent young people who can play a full and active part in the community. Students are all well-known and treated as individuals in order to develop both their intellectual abilities as well as helping them to develop as independent learners. We ensure our students achieve the highest possible academic outcomes through a combination of outstanding teaching and the close support needed to thrive in a more independent environment. The curriculum engenders resilience, self-confidence, empathy and independence. Through these attributes, and the high standards set by teachers, our pupils value effort as a key to success and take great pride in their personal achievements. We offer outstanding educational experience for our students who choose to come to study with us from many schools in the local area, wider parts of the UK and all around the world

Key responsibilities: Supporting children across the curriculum, often with a particular focus on maths, reading and writing
Providing extra help to children with special needs or those for whom English is not their first language
Helping develop programmes of learning activities and adapting appropriate materials
Motivating and encouraging pupils
Assisting with marking and correcting work
Attending meetings and reviews
Helping with school events, trips and activities
Supervising work that has been set in accordance with the school policy
Managing the behaviour of pupils while they are undertaking this work to ensure a constructive environment
Responding to any questions from pupils about process and procedures
Dealing with any immediate problems or emergencies according to the school's policies and procedures
Collecting any completed work after the lesson and returning it to the appropriate teacher
Reporting back as appropriate using the school's agreed referral procedures on the behaviour of pupils during the class, and any issues arising

To qualify, you must: Be eligible to work in the UK (i.e. Youth Mobility Visa, UK passport)
Have sensitivity, understanding and patience
Be able to remain calm in stressful situations
Have a positive attitude and desire towards working with children
Be flexible and open to change
Have excellent verbal communication skills
