Empower through understanding: Teaching Assistant for SEMH Support

Ready to be a beacon of support for students with Social, Emotional, and Mental Health (SEMH) needs? Protocol Education is seeking a dedicated Teaching Assistant with a focus on SEMH support, poised to make a meaningful impact within a school that is situated in an area of high deprivation where a lot of the children are in social care or come from low income families.

Role : SEMH Support Teaching Assistant

Location: Hastings

Contract: full or part time

Salary : £80-100 per day

About us:

At Protocol Education, we are passionate about comprehensive educational solutions. Join us in creating an inclusive environment where students with SEMH needs can flourish.

About the school:

The main site, situated in Eastbourne offers provision to 16 KS3 and 20 KS4 students. The site is a former infants school building and has 4 multi-use classrooms, a science lab, Art room and food technology space. It serves students from schools in Eastbourne, Wealden and Lewes/Western Coastal areas.

The purpose of the school is to identify and address underlying causes of difficult behaviours, enable re-engagement and support pupils to develop strategies for regulation, pro-social behaviours and resilience. The intention is for all pupils to move towards progression into mainstream settings, supported through relationship based therapeutic interventions.

The school offers statutory day 6 provision following permanent exclusion and dual registered provision for pupils are at risk of exclusion, with the intention of reintegrating into mainstream settings following a period of intervention with us
