Company: Vision for Education

Location: Blackpool

Category: other-general

About the role

Vision for Education is seeking to appoint an SEN Classroom Cover Supervisor to join our successful supply teaching team and to work in a specialised SEND providers in Blackpool on a full-time basis from April 2024. FREE training will be provided if you have no prior experience.

As a Cover Supervisor you will be responsible for leading lessons of approximately 6-8 pupils in the absence of the class teacher. You will cover classes across the full range of school subjects, but don't worry, you are not expected to be a subject specialist in each area. The lesson will always be planned, and this will be provided in advance. It is your role as the Cover Supervisor to facilitate the classes learning, manage classroom behaviour, record accurate registers, and provide a handover to the absent teacher. Successful Cover Supervisors are adaptable, flexible, motivated, confident and organised, they have a passion for education and supporting young people.

This role provides a great opportunity to gain experience of working within a school prior to applying to Initial Teacher Training. Although previous experience of working in a Secondary or SEND school is desirable, it is not essential.

If you are new to the role, you will be offered a FREE comprehensive online and face-to-face Cover Supervisor Training Programme to equip you with the skills you need. Visit our website to find out more about our Cover Supervisor Training Programme or send us your CV to speak with one of our consultants for more information.
