Qualifications:

Ideally 2 years PQE valuation experience. More recently qualified Registered Valuers will be considered.

Keen to be part of a successful and well organised national team with the ability to be self-motivated and with a drive to succeed.

A good working knowledge of IT.

Ability to travel throughout the region.

Good interpersonal and communication skills.

High level of attention to detail and an enquiring mind.

Good time management skills, prioritising tasks to ensure that deadlines are met.

The ability to produce clear and concise written reports and recommendations.

Who are Bruton Knowles?

Bruton Knowles Limited is a Chartered Surveying practice who provide a comprehensive range of surveying and property services. Our geographic reach covers the whole of England, Wales, and Scotland with clients in utilities and infrastructure, valuation, commercial, planning and development and rural.

We've taken on new, innovative ways of working to deliver our services and we've created a new strategy to target key areas of growth for the business, resulting in the launch our new Utilities and Infrastructure team, our new National Valuation Team and further development for our Rural team whilst bolstering our activity in commercial, planning and development.

Why join us?

We're not a giant corporation with faceless, nameless individuals, neither are we a small firm offering little scope for advancement. Our company is of a size to offer stability along with agility and dynamism, career progression, openness, self-empowerment, and versatility. You'll be valued as an individual, supported and mentored by the best in the field whatever your experience level. With opportunities in multiple areas including utilities and infrastructure, valuation, commercial, rural, in both the private and public sector you will be working on projects for prestigious clients from individuals to large national organisations.
