Year 4 Teacher - Outstanding Primary School- Blackheath, London

Wayman Education is working with a vibrant and fun primary school based in Blackheath seeking a proactive and emotionally intelligent Year 4 teacher.

The children are hardworking, caring, inquisitive and imaginative and the staff here aspire to develop well-rounded, confident pupils through a supportive pastoral environment, as a result we are seeking a primary teacher who knows how to drive attainment and create engaging lessons.

Interviews will be happening on a rolling basis over the next two weeks, so don't hesitate, get in touch today to find out more!

Responsibilities of a Year 4 teacher:

As a Year 4 teacher you will be responsible for the pastoral care of children taking their first steps in Key Stage 2, promoting teamwork, and cultivating a conducive learning environment.

Teaching the Key Stage 2 curriculum to groups of children while also focusing on each individual child's learning targets, encouraging their strengths, and improving their weaknesses

Further developing maths ability and introducing fractions, statistics, and geometry

Help children develop their writing ability by creating plots, characters and settings for stories.

Keeping track of children's progress and occasionally reporting back to parents

About the school:

2 form entry school located in a lovely residential area of Blackheath.

Friendly environment that welcomes early career teachers (ECTs) with open arms

As well as academic excellence, this school aspires to develop well-rounded, confident pupils through its supportive pastoral environment.

Easily accessible via the Bakerloo and overground lines

Suitable applicants must have:

Relevant qualifications (Experienced teachers as well as ECTs are welcome to apply)

Be able to commute to Blackheath via public transport.

Experience teaching Lower Key Stage 2.

The confidence to hit the ground running, proactively lead a class and manage behaviour in line with school behaviour policies.
