Job description

Are you looking for a new start in January?

Do you have experience working with KS2?

Do you want to experience a wide array of schools in the Dewsbury area?

If you answered yes to the above, then get in touch!

I am currently working with a number of schools in Dewsbury and its surrounding areas that regularly need an experienced and enthusiastic KS2 teacher to work with their Year 5 and 6 classes when their regular teachers are absent.

This role is crucial to maintaining a strong working atmosphere and is pivotal to the ongoing learning of the students.

To be successful in this role you will need:

To be proactive and able to adapt to new situations daily.

An empathetic person who is able to form strong bonds with pupils in a short time frame.

experience teaching the upper KS2 curriculum.

Good behaviour management skills.

The ability to travel to different schools.

Working for Prospero Teaching you can expect to receive the following: –

* A competitive salary depending on experience

* Working with a team of dedicated and friendly consultants * Professional and organised structure

* 24 hour service

* A rewarding teaching environment

* Professional career development

Prospero Teaching is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children therefore all applicants are subject to an Enhanced Disclosure and full referencing prior to work
